

DORCHESTER DRAMA PRESENTS

A Murder Mystery Dinner

by Ian McCutcheon

at

The Place with the Stage:
Sunninghill Community Hall,
Culliford Road, Dorchester

7:30pm

Friday 23rd & Saturday 24th March 2012

Cast

| | |
|---------------|--|
| Sam Kelly | Lance Boyle: An old friend of Andy's, and chief accountant at Andy's company. |
| Paul Lawless | Father Back: The priest who officiated at Andy's funeral. |
| Ann Ottaway | Dan(ielle) Druff: A retired police officer, who investigated Andy's death. |
| Laura Smith | Tess Tykell: The surgeon who battled in vain to save Andy on the operating table. |
| Emily Taylor | Penny Sillen: Emma's sister, recently divorced, and her only blood relative. |
| Jess Taylor | Emma Royde: A wealthy widow |
| Peter Wheeler | Master of Ceremonies |
| Vince Jones | Director |

Emma Royde is a wealthy widow whose late husband, Andy, was the victim of a hit-and-run driver. Emma has a drink problem. And to make matters worse, she's had an anonymous letter, telling her that one of the beneficiaries in her will is going to kill her. So is it wise of her to invite them all to her home...?

Production Team

Producer: Anne Reeve

Stage Manager, Light and Sound: David Reeve

Poster and Programme Design: Rowan Seymour

Stage Crew: Jane Jones, Lindsey Maton, Tina Rutherford, Lee Stroud, Jonny White, Georgie Willis

Dorchester Drama would like to thank Trinity's Treats and the Dorchester United Church Bookshop for selling tickets, The Victoria Hotel and Sunninghill School for rehearsal rooms and Sunninghill School for loaning the three piece suite.

Interested in Joining Dorchester Drama?

We hope you enjoy our production tonight. Dorchester Drama always welcomes new members, both on stage and behind the scenes. We are planning a series of workshops in April ahead of our summer production and this will be a great chance for new recruits and existing members to come along and have some fun. The evening and location are being finalised so watch out for further details on our website: www.dorchesterdrama.org.uk

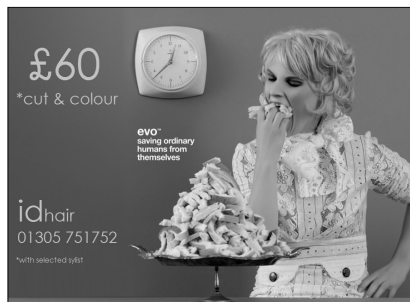

Facebook: Dorchester Drama

Twitter: #@dorchdrama

or phone David Reeve 01305 264458

Our thanks to the following for sponsoring this programme:

ID hair voucher - cut out and use!

TRINITY'S TREATS

41 Trinity Street (opposite Argos)

Independently owned, selling a range of newspapers, magazines, sweets, chocolates, snacks and lunchtime food.
A low-cost corner shop in the heart of the town.

Dorchester Drama Programme 2012

Summer Production: Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare
19th to 21st July at Sunninghill School

Autumn Production: Gaslight: A Victorian Thriller by Patrick Hamilton
8th to 10th November at the Corn Exchange

You may also wish to support us by becoming a 'Friend of Dorchester Drama'.

You will receive advance notice of our productions plus a free ticket to each one and it only costs £17.50 a year.

Please write to Ann Ottaway, 175 Radipole Lane,
Weymouth, DT4 0TF with your name and address and enclosing a cheque made payable to Dorchester Drama.